Leo:

After conferring with AKKR, we were not able to identify any means of isolating the categories of documents you specified during our March 11, 2019 teleconference without reviewing the same 40,000+ emails and additional non-email ESI responsive to basic search terms drawn from the subpoenas (i.e., MVSC, CDK, EVR, CVR, Vitu, DMVDesk, “Motor Vehicle Software Corporation”, and “electronic vehicle registration”).

Even if AKKR, notwithstanding its relevance objection, were willing to produce the categories of information you articulated (which is not the case), the proposed means of narrowing the subpoenas would not materially lessen the burden on AKKR in any event,

I appreciate your efforts to work out a compromise. However, we are at impasse.

Best wishes,

Sara

Thanks for your time on the phone yesterday. Just confirming our extension, to March 22, 2019, to respond to the document subpoena.

In the meantime, I will discuss with AKKR the issues raised during our call yesterday and will get back to you as soon as possible.

Best wishes,

Sara

Does 2:00 pacific/4:00 central work on Monday? During our call, we can also discuss the deposition subpoena to AKKR, which AKKR objects to on the same grounds as the document subpoena.

Thanks,

Sara

Leo:

Please see the attached letter concerning the subpoena to Accel-KKR Capital Partners IV, LP in the above-referenced case.

Are you available to discuss tomorrow afternoon? If not, please provide some alternative times within the next few days.

Thanks,

Sara

Leo:

Good afternoon. This email follows my voice message to you a moment ago. Our firm is representing Accel-KKR with respect to the subpoena it received in the above captioned matter. I see that the stated response deadline is this week, February 22.

We ask that you kindly agree to a 21-day extension of time, to March 15, 2019, for Accel-KKR to respond. Please confirm that this is acceptable.

Thank you,

Sara
